TRIED RECIPES.

STEAMED MACARONI.

Break a quarter pound of macaroni in short pieces and cook it until tender in salted boiling water. Drain it and put it with a cupful of bread-crumbs which have been soaked for five minutes in a cupful of hot milk; add a tablespoonful of chopped parsley and a teaspoonful of onion juice, a pinch of sweet herbs, two tablespoonfuls of butter, and, lastly, two well beaten eggs. Season to taste with salt and pepper; cook in a steamer for one hour.

SAVORING RICE WITH HAM.

Boil a cupful of rice in two quarts of salted water for twenty minutes, having the water at a galloping boil when the rice goes in. Drain and add to it a cupful of hot milk, into which you have stirred two raw eggs, two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese, and a tablespoonful of butter. Mix well; add half a cupful of boiled ham, chopped fine; put into a greased mold and steam for an hour and a half. Turn out on a flat dish and pour over it a sauce made by cooking together a tablespoonful each of butter and flour with a cupful of milk, and when these are smooth, stirring into it a tablespoonful of grated cheese. Salt and pepper to taste.

SCALLOPED CABBAGE WITH MEAT.

Boil a head of cabbage in two waters, and when you cook cabbage always leave the pot uncovered and have standing near it on the stove a cup of vinegar. Drain the cabbage, let it cool, and chop it fine. Butter a pudding dish and strew it with fine crumbs. On this put a layer of minced cabbage seasoned with salt and pepper, dot it with bits of butter, then put on more crumbs and a layer of chopped corned beef. You may use ham, but in this case omit the salt from the layer of cabbage. Continue in this way until your dish is full. Pour in a cupful of liquor in which your corned beef was boiled, strew crumbs on the top, and over this grated cheese, hake, covered for half an hour, uncover and brown. Serve in the dish in which it was cooked.
